

Eating Disorders Conference

The Royal Free CAMHS Eating Disorders Intensive Service and the Royal Free Hospital Children's School would like to invite you to a morning of talks and workshops around the recognition, prevention and management of eating disorders within schools

The conference is free to professionals from
Camden, Islington, Barnet, Enfield and Haringey.
Two delegates per school

Tuesday 12 November
2019 9am to 11.30am

The Atrium, The Royal Free
Hospital, London, NW3 2QG

This is a unique opportunity to see how the multi-agency collaboration of schools, hospital schools, CAMHS, social services and other medical professionals is vital in supporting a full recovery.

Delegates will have the opportunity to work collaboratively with professional from both The Royal Free Clinical and Education teams to discuss challenges and explore solutions.
